AMERICANS FIGHTING WITH FRENCH STOP HUN RUSH

Presence of United States Troops in Battle Line Strongly Felt.

Official Statement Says Americans Carried Out Brilliant Counter Attacks, Throwing Germans Back.

Artillery Reinforcements Brought Up by the Germans and Battle Is Raging Fiercely Along Entire Front.

Americans Bring Down Another German Plane in Toul Sector.

Fighting on British Front Continued to Raids.

(Associated Press Cable)

Paris, June 4.—American troops thrown into the western battle front in the Champagne salient have stopped the German advance near Neuilly Wood and in dashing counter attacks have thrown back the Germans, the War Office announces today.

On the Marne front German troops which had forced a passage of the river were driven back by French and American troops.

Between the Oise and the Aisne the Germans last night were prevented from making any progress. The battle is continuing with great violence in that sector, the Germans capturing Pernant.

AMERICAN WOUNDED

(By Associated Press Cable)

Nice, France, June 4.—The first of wounded American soldiers who had been amalgamated with French troops arrived at Nice today. They were sent to the American hospital here.

GERMANS ADVANCE

(Associated Press Cable)

Paris, June 4.—The Germans have made a further advance at one point between the Marne and the Ourcq, capturing the village of Neuilly-La-Poterie, seven and one-half miles northwest of Chateau-Thierry.

ROUT BOCHES

(By Associated Press Cable)

With the American Army in France, June 3.—An American combat patrol engaged in a desperate fight with a larger enemy patrol near Ancerville in the Luneville sector early today. The American losses were slight. The German casualties are not known.

The Americans discovered the German patrol and endeavored to surround and capture the enemy. During the fight the Americans found themselves being surrounded by overwhelming numbers but managed to extricate themselves, fighting all the while.

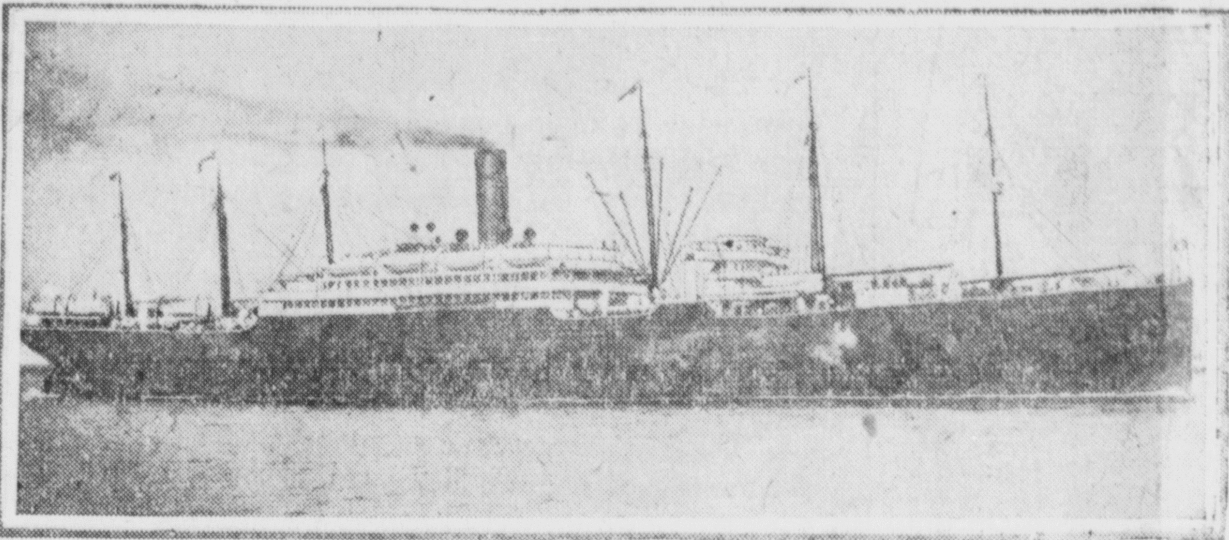

ON ALL FRONTS

American troops are fighting with the French in holding up the new German rush and already have begun to make their presence strongly felt.

One force of Americans thrown into the battle on the important front between the Marne and Ourcq not only stopped an enemy advance into Neuilly Wood between 7 and 8 miles northwest of Chateau-Thierry, but carried out what the official statement declares a magnificent counter attack which threw back the Germans.

On another front—running east and west along the Marne—the American forces co-operated with the French in

AMERICAN TRANSPORT PRESIDENT LINCOLN SUNK BY A U-BOAT

TRANSPORT PRESIDENT LINCOLN

The United States transport President Lincoln has been torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine. The vessel was returning home with wounded men, according to unofficial reports. The vessel was attacked about 600 miles off the French coast. It is believed that the loss of life was small, in view of the fact that the President Lincoln remained afloat one hour after being struck, which was long enough for the convoy to have rescued all of her complement.

hurling back a German battalion which had crept over a foot bridge to the south bank of the river. The Germans sustained heavy casualties and lost 100 men in prisoners.

The Germans had evidently succeeded in bringing considerably more of their artillery and are attacking along virtually the entire front from the Oise to the Marne.

Desperate fighting developed along this front last night which resulted in the enemy making advances at a few points, notably in the region southwest of Soissons. To the south between the Ourcq and the Marne ground was given and taken by both sides. The Americans were in the fighting here, scoring their success at Neuilly Wood. Strong counter attacks were carried out at other points on this front and one of these enabled General Petain's troops to recapture the town of Mosley.

On the Aisne battlefield the German advance is waning. Now that the force of the German blow has nearly spent itself, the offensive is turning into a series of battles for important positions. Rheims is reported almost three-fourths surrounded by the Germans who are within a mile of the city. However, the allied lines are holding firm.

On the British front the fighting continues to be confined to raids. British airmen have accounted for 22 German planes.

There has been heavy artillery fighting on the American sector northeast of Toul but no infantry action. In aerial action there another German machine has been brought down.

TROOP TRAIN IN COLLISION

Equipment Train on Erie Collides with Engine. Five Are Killed.

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Akron, O., June 4.—A west bound Erie equipment train bearing a load of soldiers at 4:50 o'clock this morning collided with an engine backing from Marion to Kent, one-half mile west of Rit-tan. Five men were killed and others seriously injured.

RUSSIA STILL RECOGNIZING

(By Associated Press Cable)

Amsterdam, June 4.—The Ukrainian government has recognized the White Russian Republic, according to a telegram from Kiev. A dispatch received in London May 24 reported the White Russian Republic had been proclaimed with consent of Germany.

CONVICTED

MRS. ROSE PASTOR STOKES

Mrs. Rose Pastor Stokes has been convicted by a jury in the Kansas City Federal Court on all three counts of an indictment charging her with violation of the Espionage act. The maximum penalty is a fine of $10,000 or twenty years imprisonment, or both, on each count. Mrs. Stokes was released on $10,000 bail pending her appeal for a new trial, and said she would continue her work "regardless of the outcome."

CASUALTY LIST

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Washington, June 4.—The army casualty list today contained 40 names. Three were killed in action, two died of wounds, 19 died of accident and other causes and six died of disease.

The following Ohio men were named: Joseph Henderson, of Dayton, died of accident; Frank J. Meyer, of Reading, Ohio, was taken prisoner; Clarence E. Newton, Cincinnati, also taken prisoner.

146 KILLED IN COLOGNE RAIDS

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Washington, June 4.—A recent allied air raid on Cologne caused the death of 146 persons, the State Department was informed today. About 150 were injured.

WILL CALL OUT TELEGRAPHERS

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Washington, June 4.—S. J. Konenkant, president of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union, announced he would call a strike of telegraphers after he reaches Chicago, whence he will go tomorrow. The strike call, he said, will go out by mail, which will take three days for its delivery.

NO AGENCIES ON THE SHORE FOR U-BOATS

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Washington, June 4.—No information has reached the Navy Department, it was said, indicating during the eleven days the submarine is known to have been in American waters that it had any communication with agents ashore.

The Navy Department reports today showed the following losses:

Jacob M. Haskell, Isabel B. Willey, the Hattie Dunn, the Edward H. Cole, the Edna, the Herbert L. Pratt, the steamer Texel, the steamer Carolina, the schooner Hauppauge, the steamer Winneconne. The crews of all but the Carolina and Jacob Haskell having been reported saved.

FAIRBANKS IS SINKING FAST END IS NEAR

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Indianapolis, Ind., June 4.—Charles W. Fairbanks, former vice president of the United States, continues to lose ground during the night and this morning the physician in chief said his patient was sinking rapidly.

All the members of the family except Major Richard Fairbanks, who is in France, are at the bedside. Mr. Fairbanks has been ill for several weeks.

NEARING THE END

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Indianapolis, Ind., June 4.—Charles W. Fairbanks, former vice president was so critical this afternoon that his physician announced that death was only a matter of a few hours.

NO FURTHER PROHIBITION LAWS FAVORED

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Washington, June 4.—President Wilson today declared his opposition to further prohibition legislation. He said the Food Administration decides it is necessary to conserve foodstuffs. His opposition was made known in a letter to Senator Sheppard. A House amendment to the House appropriation bill would prevent the expenditure of six billion dollars unless the President would take a stand for prohibition.

CAROLINA SURVIVORS LANDED BY SCHOONER

Three Hundred of Passengers and Crew of Torpedoed Vessel Brought Safely to an Atlantic Port.

Navy Official Doubts if More Than One Submarine Was Operating Off the American Coast.

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

An Atlantic Port, June 4.—Three hundred of the passengers and crew of the torpedoed steamship Carolina were picked up at sea by Schooner Etta B. Douglass. The schooner anchored a mile off an inlet at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon apparently awaiting orders regarding the disposition of the shipwreck cargo.

RAIDERS GONE IS THE BELIEF

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Washington, June 4.—Navy Department officials believed today the submarines that sank probably more than ten American vessels off the Atlantic coast were on their way back to the base and that for the time being the danger was over.

Secretary Baker announced this morning that no additional submarine activities had been reported. Warships, submarine chasers and airplanes were scouring the seas today in search of the enemy. Navy officials threw a veil of secrecy over their movements.

There is a growing impression here that only one submarine took part in the raid. The Navy Department has only one report indicating more. That is the statement of the captain of the Cole that he saw the periscope of a second U-boat.

Secretary Baker reiterated his opinion that the purpose of the raid was for creating a demand in the United States for the return of American naval craft to home waters.

PLANTED MINES

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Washington, June 4.—Navy mine sweeper operating off the Delaware Capes picked up a mine today, said a report to the Navy Department from the commandant of the Fourth Naval District.

It is in the same general location in which the tank steamer Herbert L. Pratt was sunk yesterday.

ARRIVES IN PORT

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

New York, June 4.—News reached here today that an American tanker damaged as a result of a fight with a submarine off the American coast had arrived at an Atlantic port.

Naval tugs picked up the crippled vessel at sea. Details are withheld for the time.

WINS WAR CROSS

LIEUTENANT FELBER

Lieutenant Julius Felber, of Brooklyn, N. Y., while on his way to the front line with supplies from a base hospital, saw three American soldiers wounded under fire. He got them to safety. His task was so dangerous that he was given the French War Cross and a special cross and citation and was especially congratulated by Major Perkins, head of the American Red Cross in France.

19 SURVIVORS OF CAROLINA REACH LAND

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

New York, June 4.—A boat from the steamship Carolina, containing 19 survivors including 2 women, has landed at Lewes, Delaware, according to information received here.

No further information is available.

REPORTED MISSING

The 80 passengers reported missing were in two life boats, one a motor launch, when he last saw them. He reported that the schooner had put in at a small Atlantic coast port and asked for a tug to tow the vessel to another port farther north.

MAY ACCOUNT FOR THEM. Captain Barbour reported to his owners today through naval officials who transmitted the message. He was apparently not aware of the survivors landed at Lewes earlier in the day.

The message stated that the Carolina had been sunk.

SECOND BOAT

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Atlantic City, June 4.—Shortly before three o'clock this afternoon a second boat load of the Carolina rowed ashore here.

CAROLINA'S BOATS CAME INTO PORT

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Atlantic City, June 4.—A boat from the torpedoed Carolina came ashore in the center of this resort this afternoon. It carried 23 passengers, many of them women and several of the crew.

This probably accounts for all or nearly all of the 340 passengers and crew.

EIGHTY MISSING

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

New York, June 4.—Eighty of the crew and passengers of the Porto Rico liner Carolina are missing; the rest have been saved, according to a message received here from the commander, Captain Barbour who is aboard the Schooner Eva B. Douglass, with 150 passengers and 94 of the crew.

ALL SAVED

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

New York, June 4.—The possibility that every person was saved on board the coastwise steamship Carolina shelled and probably sunk by one of the German submarines on Sunday, was indicated this afternoon with arrival of ships at various ports.

At one port the American Schooner Eva B. Douglass put into port with nearly 300 passengers and crew. At a second port a British steamship arrived with 19 survivors.

COLUMBUS SAFE

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

New York, June 4.—The City of Columbus, yesterday reported attacked off the American coast by a German submarine, has turned back into an Atlantic port.

NEW YORK DARK

(Associated Press Dispatch)

New York, June 4.—The police department today issued an order that all display lights in New York city at night are forbidden until further notice.

SHELLED BOATS

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

New York, June 4.—Evidence that the German submarine that attacked the New York and Porto Rico liner Carolina shelled her life boats, was brought here today by a British steamer.

The British ship reported that she had picked up late yesterday off Cape May an empty motor life boat belonging to the Carolina damaged by shell fire.

CLAIM CAPTURE OF ONE TANK FROM SAMMIES

(By Associated Press Cable)

Amsterdam, June 4.—During the recent fighting in the German advance south of the Aisne front, three large American tanks attacked German forces and one of the tanks was captured undamaged and its American crew made prisoner, declares Harre Scheurmann, one of the Berlin war correspondents at the front, as quoted in a Wolfe Bureau dispatch today.

CITY COUNCIL HOLDS A VERY BUSY SESSION

$71,050 in Budget Asked for New Year—Salaries of Firemen and Patrolmen Increased.

Another Patrolman is Authorized in Order to Handle Automobile Problem.

Delinquent Assessments Again to Forefront.

The regular session of the city council Monday night was one of unusual interest and the session, under the direction of vice-president V. C. Rowe, who occupied the chair in the absence of president Melvin, who is ill in a New York hospital, had a busy evening.

One of the chief acts of the evening was the passage of an ordinance providing for another patrolman, and an ordinance to amend an ordinance to prohibit and punish certain offenses and to regulate the use of the streets of the city—particularly with reference to automobiles. Salaries of the patrolmen and firemen also were increased.

Under the ordinance amending the traffic ordinance, section nine of the ordinance is as follows:

"Section 9.—No person having charge of or control over any vehicle on the streets of said city shall cause or permit the same to stand within any street intersection or occupy any sidewalk or cross walk in said city, or occupy any space which would prevent access from the street to any fire hydrant in said city, or cause or permit the same to stand on any street in the congested districts of said city except as provided in section eight, and except as such vehicles may be allowed to stand with its right side immediately next to the curb of such street so that no part of such vehicle shall extend more than twelve feet from the curb on the right or less than 15 feet from any intersecting street or alley, nor less than five feet from any hydrant in the city."

An ordinance providing for three patrolmen instead of two, was adopted by unanimous vote, and the extra patrolman will devote at least part of his time to looking after the automobile drivers who dash through the city at high speed, or who operate machines with the exhaust open.

The ordinance increasing the salaries provided for an increase of the police patrolmen from $70 to $85; firemen from $70 to $85 and fire chief from $75 to $90.

The annual budget was submitted to council, and asks for $71,050, divided as follows:

General Fund, $5,000; Health, $1,500; Safety, $9,000; Service, $25,000; Library, $1,550; Interest and Sinking Fund, $29,000.

The City Auditor and Treasurer made their reports for the month.

Mayor Dahl's report of fines, costs and licenses for the past month showed a total of $232.20 turned into the treasury.

A committee composed of Hicks, Hill, Phillips, Mayor Dahl, Rowe and the Solicitor and Auditor was named to confer with the County Commissioners and County Treasurer in an effort to collect delinquent assessments, and the committee is determined to collect every dollar in delinquent assessments that it is possible to collect.

The Service Director was authorized to construct a shed for the city street flusher and other city machinery, in the rear of the city building.

Clerk Hitchcock was authorized to convey a message of sympathy to President Al Melvin and family, Mr. Melvin being very ill.

George Inskeep asked the council to take up the matter of completing the sidewalks on Millikan avenue, and the Service Director and Engineer were authorized to look after the matter at once.

The widening of Oak street also was suggested by Mr. Inskeep, but this was not acted upon.

Frank Johnson's application for some crushed stone on West Temple and Draper streets was not acted upon.

The Service Director reported the purchase of a street flusher at a cost of $1725, and the bill was ordered paid.

A catch basin at the intersection of Pearl street and Rose avenue was ordered.

EXPECT MORE THAN 100 WILL REGISTER

Basing estimates on figures available, there is reason to believe that between 100 and 150 young men in Fayette county will register, Wednesday, for military service.

All men attaining the age of 21 years since June 5, 1917 are included in the registration, and the manner in which slackers have been dealt with heretofore is warning to any who might think they could evade the draft, for sooner or later it will be found out and disgrace and speedy military service will follow.

As soon as registered the men will be classified and examined, and will be placed at the bottom of their respective classes.

It is believed that 80 to 90 percent of the men will be placed in Class One.

MANY TRAINS OF TROOPS ARE SEEN

A great many troop trains have passed through the city, bound in various directions, during the past few days, and a troop train is becoming a familiar sight as an ordinary passenger train.

Yells from the troops as they pass through the city invariably attract many to the stations or near the track where they can wave a greeting to the soldiers who are bound for "anywhere."

Persons crossing railroads are cautioned to remember that there are a great many extra trains so that the usual time of trains should not be depended upon as a safeguard against danger.

FLUSHER AT WORK STREETS ARE CLEAN

The city street flusher has been kept busy during the past few days, with the result that virtually all paved streets have received a thorough cleansing, with exception of some refuse being left in the gutter instead of being carted away. This will be taken care of in the near future, however.

The flusher does all that is claimed for it, and leaves the street free of dust and in far better condition than where sprinkling and sweeping are resorted to.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR BIG PICNIC

Everything is ready for the annual picnic of the Fayette Fish and Game Protective Association, to be held at Cedarhurst, below Rock Mills, Wednesday, and if the weather permits there is every indication that a record breaking crowd of the members and those who desire to be members, will attend.

It is an all-day event, and every minute will be crowded full.

The Washington Band will furnish music throughout the afternoon and the lunch stand will be in charge of George Sunkle. Cool and refreshing drinks (soft) will be available at the stands on the grounds.

Corn in the county is making a wonderfully rapid growth, and a great deal of it has been cultivated the second time, and within the next two or three weeks will be given its final cultivation.

A great deal of replanting has been necessary because of improper seed, or the ravages of corn pests. However, in most instances the farmers now have a very good "stand" of corn and indications point toward a remarkably good crop.

CLERKS ANXIOUS REGARDING ORDER

A great many persons in this city including clerks in stores who are registered for military service, have been making inquiry at the office of the Local Board as to their status under the new order requiring persons engaged in "non-essential" work to change occupations by July 1st.

However, the Local Board has received no definite information on the subject, and so far has been unable to give satisfactory answer to the questions asked.

As soon as definite information is received, it will be announced through The Herald.

The man who has his hair trimmed will hereafter pay 35 cents instead of 25 cents, and likewise the price of a massage has crawled up an extra dime, effective Monday of this week.

The price increase, according to one barber, is due to increased cost of labor and supplies. The change in price was adopted at a recent meeting of the barbers of the city.

MINISTERS PICNIC AT ROCK MILLS

The monthly meeting of the Ministerial Association Monday took the form of a very enjoyable picnic at Rock Mills.

Fifteen ministers of town and county laid aside ministerial dignity for the day and fished, swapped fish stories, roasted potatoes and beef with all the zest of the true picnickers.

There was keen rivalry in the telling of fish stories. Rev. Cherrington told such a "whopper" that he thought he had a sure thing but Rev. Hart revealed the imagination of a Jules Verne and won the medal.

The picnic dinner was a real feast, with hampers of picnic delicacies adding to the fresh roasted viands.

After the dinner there was a brief meeting, during which plans were laid for a county campaign for Summer Sunday School attendance and also for a fall campaign for church attendance.

The ministers who participated were: Rev. Grove, Rev. Hart, Rev. Gage, Rev. Cherrington, Rev. Ludwick, Rev. Colman, of this city; Rev. Kerr, Rev. Laughlin, of Bloomington; Rev. McKinnon, Rev. Meyers, of Jeffersonville; Rev. Pfaltzgraf of Good Hope; Rev. Drumm of New Holland; Rev. Wilkin of Fairview and Harold Hays, Y. M. C. A. secretary.

The Submarine Raids

The appearance of German submarines off the American coast on Sunday night and the destruction wrought to shipping by the pirate raiders is, for us, the most startling development of the war since the German offensive lunge in France was begun a week ago.

Startling as the news of submarine activities in American waters was when first announced, consideration and reflection encouraged the belief that it was not likely that the Huns would attempt to maintain anything more than spasmodic raids along the Atlantic coast and that for the purpose of terrorizing coast shipping, alarming the civil population and with the hope of sinking a troop transport.

So far as the gain, from a military point of view is concerned, the loss of nearly a score of small ships in Sunday night's raids, is inconsequential.

It will result in arousing the anger and the resentment of the American people, in extra precautionary methods being taken and a general search of the coast for any possible submarine bases on this side and their eradication if any are discovered.

The raids will go a long way toward bringing realization of the war to the American people. We are too far away from the home bases for any extensive submarine operations, but the raids will teach us to be on our guard.

The nation is at war with pirates and outlaws and we must be constantly alert.

The submarine raids teach us that, and they will teach us caution, vigilance and the need for vigorous affirmative action.

While the menace is not great, it is real and substantial and must be guarded against.

Poetry For Today

ONCE THE WOMAN PRIMITIVE
 Once the woman primitive,
 Creature of many a savage whim;
 Giving men all she had to give,
 Servant and vassal and slave to him;
 Now, high-headed and stanch and trim,
 Leading the van in the great march past—
 Dumb in the ages dark and dim—
 Now she edits the Bugle-Blast!

Once Delilah and Jezebel,
 Charming with hoax the hapless male,
 Something less of heaven than hell,
 Pushing her puppets beyond the pale
 Now, torch-bearer of Truth, her tale
 Thrills the race with a vision vast,
 Rousing a cynic world and stale—
 Now she edits the Bugle-Blast!

Once the Queen of Sheba fair,
 Bess and Catherine and Marie,
 And other ladies royal, rare,
 Shrouded in a golden memory;
 Now, enthroned again is she—
 Crowned of yore, she is crowned at last;
 Ruling in Freedom's monarchy,
 Now she edits the Bugle-Blast!

TO AID ARMIES

Washington, June 4.—Field Marshal Von Hindenburg is making a new effort to have the Teuton navy back his land work, according to advices received here. He is urging that they attempt to cripple the British sea power, regardless of the cost. Only by this means, according to the argument he is reported to be making anew, can the entente be actually crushed. This is similar to the argument he used during the other drives. The navy department here was advised then of the struggle Von Hindenburg was having with Von Capelle. And, at that time, responsible officials here believed that Von Hindenburg would prevail. They point out he did not care about loss of ships, particularly if there was a ghost of a chance of the sea offensive being successful and thus crowning his efforts on the land.

The statement of Rear Admiral Giesbrecht in New York that Britain had actually been advised a few days ago that the German ships were coming out, draw much discussion here. That American ships would get a place of honor in warding off such a blow as his claimed, is certain.

Americans in Artillery Duel.
 Paris, June 4.—After long inactivity, an artillery duel broke out north-west of Toul. It lasted several hours, both American and German batteries letting loose everything they had. The Germans used much gas and high explosives. No infantry action developed.

DISSATISFIED WITH ORDER OF M'ADOO

Washington, June 4.—Representatives of 500,000 railway shopmen asked W. G. McAdoo, federal railroad administrator, not to put into effect the new wage scale without upward revision for their crafts, saying great dissatisfaction would be created and intimating that it might be impossible to avoid many strikes.

Appearing before the board of railroad wages and working conditions at its first hearing, spokesmen for the six shop trades declared they had found it difficult to work out a wage scale on the basis of the director general's order, and that extreme disappointment existed among all men who had read it. Men would find, they said, that the increases were much less than had been expected. The shop men renewed their demands for a minimum of 75 cents an hour for machinists, blacksmiths, sheet metal workers, electricians, car men with four years or more experience and boiler makers, and a minimum of 56½ cents for car men with less than four years' experience; an eight-hour standard day, six days work a week, and time and one-half for overtime. These demands represented an increase of about 40 per cent above existing wages.

Massing Troops in Italy.

Geneva, June 4.—Swiss troops on the eastern frontier report a constantly increasing movement of Austrian infantry and artillery from Bozen and Trent southward toward the Italian front. At St. Elve pass, where the Austrian, Italian and Swiss frontiers meet, the Austrian garrison has been greatly strengthened. Emperor Karl is going to the Italian front this week.

AMERICAN MISSION IS AIDING ITALIANS IN MILITARY PLANS

Headquarters Italian Army, June 3.—(Associated Press)—The American Military Mission is now one of the permanent establishments at Italian headquarters, with extensive offices and a considerable force of officers and men, in close communication with the Italian high command and with the various sections of the front.

Thus far the work has been one of organization and observation, soon there will be the active service along the mountain and Plave fronts of some 1,500 officers and men of the regular army medical service, with thirty ambulance sections of ten or twelve ambulances to the section, and later on there is the possibility, much discussed, of American troops in the fighting line. Already the American uniform is much in evidence along the streets, and there is a distant sentiment of cordiality toward the troopers in the broad-brimmed sombrero.

Major General Eben Swift, a cavalry officer of long service, is at the head of the American mission. He was for a time in France in conference with General Pershing, and then came with his staff to Rome and to Headquarters. With him as chief of staff is Colonel John McA. Palmer of the General Staff Corps, who was on the general staff at Washington when the constructive work of the new army was being done, and later was one of General Pershing's chief staff officers in France.

Other officers of the mission are Lieutenant Colonel R. U. Patterson of the Army Medical Corps; Major Paulsen, Engineer Corps; Major Burgin, ordnance; Captains E. O. Hunter, McKinney, and Morgan, aide-de-camp to General Swift; Captain Winthrop Chandler and Lieutenant E. C. Pomeroy of the intelligence branch; Horace Bigelow, secretary, and some eight or ten enlisted men for the clerical work.

The American officers have been well received and made to feel at home. They share the mess with the other foreign military missions which includes a large number of British, French, Belgian, Japanese, Serbian and other officers. As liaison officer keeping the Americans in close touch with the Italian military authorities, the government designated Prince Colona, Mayor of Rome.

They are in close contact also with many of the other well known military figures including General Delma Radcliffe, head of the British mission; the Count of Turin, commander of the Italian cavalry, and the many officers of high rank who center at headquarters.

YACHTSMEN HELP THE BRITISH NAVY IN RECENT RAIDS

(Associated Press Correspondence)

Dover, England, June 1.—Men who were amateur yachtsmen in the days of peace constitute very largely the personnel of the fleets of motor launches which have played an important part in most of the British operations in the English Channel during the past three and a half years. In the recent Zebrugge affair more than a score of them were engaged, putting up the smoke screen and acting as "mosquito escort" to the destroyers and other ships engaged.

The yachtsmen who man these launches entered the naval service at the beginning of the war with an intimate knowledge of the waters around the British Isles, and also of the French and Belgian coastal waters, so that they were able to perform many important services.

Dozens of the launches which they pilot are of American manufacture. Many others, especially those used in the early days of the war, were fast pleasure craft, lent to the Admiralty and usually commanded by their owners, who received commissions in the Volunteer Reserve.

It is true that these men had only been amateur sailors, but their local knowledge was often equal to that of the professional fisherman, and to this preliminary advantage they soon added the benefits derived from intensive courses of naval instruction. At present all these men have become professional and qualified members of the British "Senior Service."

Although these motor launches are built primarily for fast patrol work, they usually carry a serviceable gun, and in several cases have given a good account of themselves in a fight. A few days ago, a German submarine sighted an American sailing ship and attacked her. Before the U-boat could do any damage, however, a watchful motor launch appeared and opened fire. The enemy, taken by surprise, was compelled to withdraw his attention from the American and defend himself against his tiny enemy. The sailing ship escaped without sustaining any damage, and the submarine was compelled to submerge under a rain of shells.

The motor-launch fleet comes technically under the head of "Auxiliary Patrol" in the Admiralty ledgers, a place which it shares with its partner, the trawler fleet. The trawler patrol is manned mainly by fishermen as the motor launches are manned by yachtsmen. An indication of the essential democracy of the British character is to be found in the good-fellowship which exists between the men of the trawlers and the men of the motor launches.

RED CROSS CALL

Washington, June 4.—Miss Jane A. Delano, director of the department of nursing, American Red Cross, issued this statement: "There is vital patriotic work waiting for every trained nurse in the United States now, and there will be more work calling for such skill, as each one thousand military nurses are sent to military hospitals here and abroad. The surgeon general has called for 25,000 graduate nurses by Jan. 1 and the navy needs additional nurses. These nurses will flock to the colors, for American women are as brave and as loyal as are their men. The Red Cross, therefore, now calls upon all who can enter the military nursing service to enroll at once and urges every married and retired nurse to prove her patriotism and her humanity to her community by enrolling at once as a 'home defense nurse' for emergency nursing activities in her locality."

HALT LUSK TRIAL

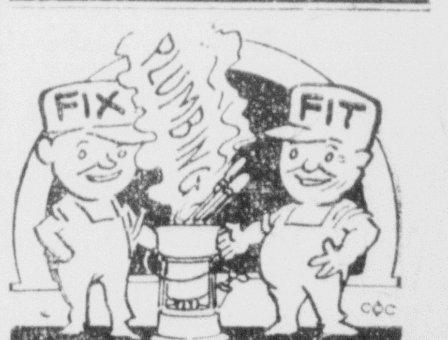

DR. DAVID ROBERTS

The trial of Miss Grace Lusk, at Waukesha, Wis., for the slaying of Mrs. Mary Newman Roberts, was halted by Judge Martin Lueck, while he ordered drastic action looking toward the prosecution in Cook County, Ill., of Dr. David Roberts, husband of the slain woman. This action came as the result of revelations drawn from Dr. Roberts under severe cross examination regarding his relations with Miss Lusk and of meetings in Chicago, where they registered as man and wife.

The last of the series of Red Cross Community Dances will be held at the K. of P. Castle, Friday night.

A special attraction will be put on by Mrs. Fred West at eight o'clock in a program of Russian Folk Dances. Mrs. West has made a special study of these dances and her artistic ability as a director insures to the public a beautiful and graceful entertainment.

The same popular orchestra that has contributed largely to the success of these dances will furnish the music.

The Red Cross Dance Committee hoped to make $500 in the four Community Dances and if the patronage of next Friday night is as generous as it has been in the other three the desired amount will be raised. With the added attraction of the Russian Folk Dances to draw spectators there is little doubt of a large attendance.

The Daughters of the American Revolution are planning to hold an open meeting on the court house lawn on Flag Day, June the 14th.

A patriotic program will be given and the public is cordially invited to attend.

The Daughters celebrated Flag Day last year with a patriotic program which drew a large crowd to the court house lawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Price entertained at a delightful family dinner Sunday. Mrs. LeRoy Murray, daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Staats and two daughters, Betty and Ruth Miss Dorothy Murray, of Mt. Vernon; Mr. A. R. Todhunter, of New Martinsburg, Mr. Orville Minton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McCoy entertained with an elaborate dinner at their attractive country home, south of town Sunday. Pink and white roses and peonies were effectively used in decoration.

The guests in cluded Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius N. McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Swift, daughter, Miss Galena, and Mr. Edward Simmons, of near Leesburg; Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Brandenburg, Wilmington; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Steele.

CHILDREN'S DAY AT CHURCH OF CHRIST

The Annual Children's Day program was put on with much success Sunday night at the Church of Christ. The entertainment was called "The Spirit of Children's Day" and readings and special songs beautifully brought out the missionary spirit, as well as the cus toms of people in foreign lands.

Miss Ethel Kimmey sang a beautiful solo, "Not Half Has Ever Been Told."

A very effective tableau, representing the different nations coming to the Cross of Christ, closed the program.

The Committee in charge was composed of Mrs. W. E. Robinson, organist, Misses Mabel Jones and Louise Minshall.

The pulpit platform was prettily decorated with flags and flowers and there was a very large attendance.

REMARKABLE INVENTION ON MARKET

Mr. C. S. Craig Notified by Patent Office that His Improved Float Valve is Patentable.

Will Revolutionize All Tank Valves

Mr. C. L. Craig of this city, one of our "geniuses" has just been notified by the U. S. Patent office that his claim for a patent has been allowed on an Improved Float Valve, for the first time presenting a valve which will cut off automatically when the float is submerged.

The practical use of this improved float is that it will operate to close and open water valves below the surface of the water. A very valuable thing for farm tanks because it will work under the ice and snow and be protected under water so that cattle, live stock can break it off.

The valve can be used in toilets in interior plumbing with tanks one half size in use with present tank. It is noiseless in operation also.

Bids fair to revolutionize the use of tanks whether in the open field or inside houses.

The remarkable thing about this invention, aside from its great probable commercial value, is that heretofore all standard writers on physics and compilers of encyclopedia have contended that it was impossible because of natural laws to construct such a valve.

Mr. Craig says himself that he does not know just what natural law, perhaps yet undiscovered by the scientists, it is that makes the valve work, but he does know it works to perfection and that after encountering a great deal of opposition at the patent office where many experts asserted "it couldn't be done" he gave a demonstration and convinced the skeptics.

A company to manufacture this valve in connection with other inventions of Mr. Craig has already been formed. It looks like there "were millions" in the new patent.

ON WAY TO MEXICO PAIR PICKED UP

John Brown, Springfield, and Ernest Henny, Columbus, were picked up by Chief Moore, and department of justice officials, Tuesday, while on their way to Mexico, or at least while they were bunning their way on the railroad with the avowed intention of going to Mexico. They are being held as slackers.

Henny was registered and in class one and the other was registered and in class four—so they declared.

The men were first heard of in this city, and when an investigation was made it was learned they had hurried out of town. Next came word from Milledgeville that they were up there and the officers speedily reached Milledgeville and brought back the two men.

It was decided that if arrangements could be made the pair would be inducted into military service without further delay.

SUBS' TOLL INCREASING

New York, June 4.—Ten American vessels are known to have been sunk recently by German submarines off the north Atlantic coast.

Scores of United States warships now are ranging the waters in search of the German submarines. At least one boat is believed to have given battle.

Out of the flood of reports which swept through the maritime district after the news was flashed that two cruiser submarines were operating 75 miles southeast of the highlands of New Jersey, these facts stood out:

The steamship Carolina of the New York and Porto Rico Steamship company has been sunk. Nothing is known of the fate of the 220 passengers and crew of 130, who took to the boats when the under-water craft began shelling the liner.

The schooner Edward H. Cole of Boston has been sunk by bombs and Captain H. J. Newcomb of Boston, with his crew of 10, have been landed here after being rescued from the boat in which they were given an opportunity to escape.

The schooners Jacob M. Haskell of Boston, Isabel B. Willey of Bath, Me.; Hattie Dunn of Thomaston, Me., and Samuel W. Hathaway have been sunk. The crew of the Haskell is reported to have been saved, but nothing is known of the fate of the three other crews.

Tanker Pratt, steamer Winnecoon and steamer Texel. The Carolina was of 8,000 tons.

Naval officers said their reports indicated five German submarines had been operating along the Atlantic coast, and that two had been sighted off the Virginia capes.

Lifeboats Spared.

The stories told by the skippers of the schooners indicate that the commander of the submarine was unusually humane for a German submarine commander. In no instance, so far as known, was a lifeboat shelled.

The Savannah line steamship City of Columbus is reported to have been sunk, but no definite news of her fate has been received.

Forty-eight survivors of vessels sunk by German U-boats, brought to port by a coastwise steamship, were landed. About half of them had been prisoners for several days aboard the submarines.

Hovering for two days over the sea where the American tanker, William Rockefeller, had been sunk by a German raider, a flotilla of destroyers and two seaplanes finally succeeded in capturing the U-boat, according to naval officers, survivors of the disaster, who landed at an Atlantic port.

The port of Boston was closed for an hour or more by naval authorities after receipt of first reports of submarines off the coast, but was reopened later to all shipping.

At least one large merchant steamship gave battle to a German submarine, according to members of the crew of the schooner Edward H. Cole, one of the victims of the U-boats' warfare. The submarine was the victor in this fight and later the same U-boat destroyed another big steamship, after several hours of firing in the same vicinity.

For 24 hours prior to the Cole's destruction, when 75 miles off Highland light, the crew saw an unusual amount of wreckage. The sea from this point to the shores also was filled with wreckage, the rescued crew reported. The submarine which sank the Cole, the crew said, was the largest they had ever seen. It carried guns fore and aft and was 250 feet long.

RAINBOW REVEILLE

"Maytime Melange" is the heading of one department in the May 12th issue of the Rainbow Reveille, the breezy little two-page official publication of the Ohio Rainbow Division and which, by the way, is "Mother's Day issue of the Reveille."

From the "Maytime Melange" the following notes are taken:

TIME WILL take us back to the States and yet, occasionally, we can not restrain ourselves from murmuring with the poet of The Ohio Penitentiary News:

He spoke the truth
The guy who said:
"The Bird of Time
Has wings of lead."

OUR SOUL of unadulterated sympathy, beneath this coated under-shirt, often spouts condolence, in such instances, for example, as the case of the sergeant who paid no small francage to have a French tailor sew a service strip on the wrong sleeve.

WE WANT Elsie! Please, Miss Janis person, when you come trenchward on your groom grenading jaunt, don't forget the fellow-citizens from Ohio.

TIPTOEINGLY someday we're going to ease up to them. Commissary fellers and tip them that the market in these here diggins is favorable to big demands in honest-to-Pershing ice cream soddy water.

AND WHEN they get the founting set up, be'gosh, all we'll harter do is slip home and pluck a straw from our slumber sack.

AT THAT, we'll bet considerable centimes that one of them consarned cootie fellers will plug up the straw.

WILL TRADE: 2 mufflers, 1% prs. knitted wristlets, 1/2 suit army woolen underwear reinforced by The Crumb Method), 1 army overcoat. Will trade for one (1) pr. B. V. D's. JAMACIA FLORAL Park, Richmond Hills, Garden City, Country Life Press, Hempstead—all ab'nd. Umm!, boy, them was the classical music of the good old days.

AND THE ragtime hits of the same period were those harmonizing haunting tunes "Back Way to Camp" and "Minola Fair Grounds."

LOVELORN—Yes, it would be good military strategy to write a letter to prospective mother-in-law today.

RATTLE—For why did you all take out ten thousand dollars of dat gov'ment assurance?

BONES—For why? Niggah, Uncl' Saiml aint gwine to put us heavy policy holdahs in dem front lines.

MAN AT THE FRONT HANDS OUT HOT ONE TO THE "SLACKERS"

Bryce Briggs, who is somewhere in France where he has been through some very rough service for the past few months, writing to his sister, Jane, of New Holland, says in effect:

"I understand that some of the persons of wealth are not taking hold of the Liberty Bonds, etc., as they should."

"Well, if these birds would get a taste of the trenches and live the life we have to live they would be glad to give every cent they have to keep out of it."

"Some of them never think about anything but money and they should be driven from the states as traitors to their country."

It is a safe prediction that the man who does not do his bit financially, it is pointed out, that he will never have any friends among the boys when they come back from the front after teaching the Hun the meaning of the word liberty.

A RANGE ETERNAL and a 7 piece set of Aluminum Ware for the price of the RANGE

WE are making an unusual offer for a few days, in giving free a Ten Dollar Set of aluminum ware with every Range Eternal sold. Here is a chance to get a life time of satisfactory kitchen service and a set of fine kitchen utensils at the regular price of the range.

Thirty-two Points of Eternal Excellence make the Range Eternal Everlastingly Good. Its flues are lined with Eternametal which never rusts or wears out and its patented polished top will not rust or pit like the old style polished tops on other ranges do.

The Range Eternal out-looks, out-cooks and out-lasts every other range on the market. It is the most beautiful range you can buy. The brightly polished nickel, the blue steel of the body and the dull color of the top make this range a constant source of pride. Its spirit of shining cheerfulness penetrates to every nook and corner of your home.

The Range Eternal costs no more than other ranges but is twice as satisfactory. And don't forget that for the next few days we will give away a Ten Dollar set of aluminum ware with every Range Eternal sold.

Call at our store and inspect this range even if you are not ready to buy. It will be worth your while.

FOR ITCHING TORTURE
Use Penetrating, Antiseptic Zemo
There is one remedy that seldom fails to stop itching torture and relieve skin irritation and that makes the skin soft, clear and healthy.
Any drugist can supply you with zemo, which generally overcomes all skin diseases. Acne, eczema, itch, pimples, rashes, blackheads, in most cases give way to zemo. Frequently, minor blemishes disappear overnight. Itching usually stops instantly. Zemo is a safe, antiseptic liquid, clean, easy to use and dependable. It costs only 35c; an extra large bottle, $1.00. It will not stain, is not greasy or sticky and is positively safe for tender, sensitive skins.

YANKS MAKE GOOD RECORD
Paris, June 4.—A remarkable record has been made by American aviators flying over the Toul sector of the battle front.
American pursuit units since April 14, when they started operations, have shot down at least 32 enemy airplanes. Seventeen of this number were seen and officially confirmed by the French, while during the same period and counting yesterday only seven American chasers have been lost.
Of these, four were killed, one by accident; two are prisoners in the hands of the Germans and the fate of the pilot is not known for certain.
The victories gained by the Americans are all the more important when it is considered that most of the enemy machines shot down have been biplanes, so that the loss in these cases has been doubly great for the Germans. All the American machines lost were monoplanes.
For the first time in nearly a month, a German plane was so bold as to venture more than a few kilometers over the line, and it did not stay long after discovery, but beat a hasty retreat homeward. The machine was so high that the men with it were unable to see much, and at that altitude must have had no respirators.
The Germans have learned the lesson that it is dangerous to try to operate over the American positions. Within the last few days the American units, in addition to patrolling the line, answering alarms and chasing off prowling German airplanes, have taken the difficult task of protecting British bombing squadrons. This serves a dual purpose of protecting the British and giving combat to the German pursuit machines, which sometimes pursue the British. Several fights which have ended disastrously for the enemy have resulted.

MISS WHITTAKER'S POPULAR RECIPES

Cornmeal Gems
1½ c. cornmeal; 1 c. sour milk; ¾ t. soda; 1 t. salt; 2 T. fat; 1 egg.
Mix dry ingredients. Add egg well beaten and the milk, then the fat. Pour into greased hot iron gem pans and bake in hot oven. May also be baked in a skillet.

Cornmeal and Hominy Bread
1 c. cooked hominy; 1 c. milk; 1 T. fat; 1 c. white cornmeal; 2 eggs; 1½ t. salt; 3 t. baking powder.
Mix ingredients well and bake in greased muffin tins.
Modify your recipes. Make them conform to food conservation by using one-fourth to one-half, and in some cases, all wheat substitute. Excellent cookies, ginger bread, and dark cakes may be made by using all barley flour.
Learn to use the substitute in your particular locality. It will save transportation and lessen the cost of food.

Gingerbread
¾ c. fat; 1 c. sugar; 1 egg; 2 T. ginger; 2 t. cinnamon; 1 t. cloves; ½ c. hot water; ½ c. New Orleans molasses; 1 t. soda; 1½ c. barley flour; 3 t. baking powder.
Cream butter substitute and fat. Add sifted spices, egg well beaten. Put soda in bottom of measuring cup pour in molasses, then hot water and stir well before adding to mixture. Add alternately liquid and sifted barley flour and baking powder. Bake in greased and floured muffin tins 15 to 20 minutes in medium hot oven.

COOK HAYS WRITES FROM BATTLE ZONE
In a letter written one month ago, Cook Emmitt Hays, M. Company, writes that the men of the company were in the best of health and spirits, and that virtually all of them had gained a number of pounds and were "feeling their keeping" and ready to take a whack at the Boches whenever opportunity offered.
"Some of the boys are all in from the raid that they were in the other night," he writes, and continuing says: "They shelled the Boche trenches for over two days and when our artillery started the barrage for the raid, it lasted for two hours. I have heard several farrages but this was the worst one that I have ever heard. They tore up a big woods and the German first, second and third line of trenches, railroad tracks, etc. There wasn't a foot of ground that wasn't torn up."
"I saw Walter Patton the other day. He is looking fine and says to give his friends his best regards. We are located in a large French city. It is the first real place in which we have been located."
"Tell everyone to write to the boys as often as they can."
